UNDERTAKING FOR IMPROVEMENT OF PREVIOUS YEAR RESULT

I hereby forego the result in following paper/s Subject/s of previous examination and will be re-appearing in the said Paper (s) along-with current Part Annual Examination to be held in 2017-18 (during the pendency of the span period only). I fully understand that my result in the above said Paper/s will be determined on the basis of my performance at the subsequent Annual examination in the said Paper (s).

Amended Rules for Improvements

1 A Candidate for the Part-II examination, during the course may with a view to improving his/her previous performance, be allowed to re-appear, only, once at the examination in one or more paper/s of Part I along with the Part II Examination, on foregoing in writing, his/her earlier performance in the paper/s concerned. But no candidate shall be allowed to re-appear in any paper of Part I while in III-year Class or thereafter.

2. A candidate for the Part III examination, appearing at the examination, initially, during the pendency of the course, may with a view to improving his/her previous performance, be allowed to re-appear only once at the examination in one or more paper/s of Part II, along with the Part III examination, on foregoing in writing, his/her earlier performance, in the paper/s Part II. No candidates shall be allowed to reappear in the paper/s of Part II after he/she has passed the Part III Examination.

3. A candidate who has cleared the papers of the Part III examination, after having appeared at the examination initially, during the pendency of the span period, may with a view to improving his/her earlier performance, be allowed to re-appear only once, at the examination in one or more paper/s of Part III at the next Annual Examination, on foregoing, in writing, his/her previous performance in the paper/s concerned or Part III Examination.

Note : In the case of a candidate who offers to re-appear, in any paper/s under the aforesaid provisions, on surrendering his/her earlier performance but fails to re-appear in the paper/s concerned, for satisfactory reasons, the marks previously secured by the candidate in the paper/s in which he/she failed to re-appear may be taken into account while determining his/her result of the examination held currently, on application by the candidate, which should reach the University within a fortnight of the termination of the current examination.

A candidate who has qualified for the award of the degree may be allowed to re-appear at a subsequent examination with a view to improving his/her previous performance. Such a candidate will be allowed to re-appear at the examination, as an ex-student, only once with a period of five years of date of his/her qualifying at the examination initially. Such a candidate may re-appear in all the written papers prescribed for Part I or Part II or Part III or Parts I & II or for Part I & III or Part II & III or in all the three parts. A candidate, who wishes to re-appear in more than one Part, may either take the examination in all Parts offered in one year, or on year to year basis. Such a candidate shall not be permitted to re-appear in the practical papers (wherever prescribed) and the marks obtained previously, in the same, will be taken into account while determining his/her result of the examination held currently. Such a candidate will be required to re-appear at the examination according to the Scheme of Examination and the syllabus of the year in which the examination is currently held.

Explanation: The candidate of the above category will not be allowed to join any post-graduate course.
